

Hypertension Study Day

Thursday, 26th April 2018

Education Centre, Mercy Hospital, Cork

Time	Speaker	Topic/content
09.15-09.30		Registration
09.30-10.00	Catriona Murphy Lecturer, School of Nursing and Human Sciences, DCU	Welcome, Introduction and epidemiology of hypertension in Ireland
10.00-10.30	Joanne Loades Independent Nurse Consultant and Specialist in Cardiovascular Disease	Blood pressure measurement and hypertension diagnosis and management using clinic, home and ambulatory blood pressure monitoring
10.30-11.05	John Cox General Practitioner, Co Wexford	Pharmacological hypertension treatment guidelines and clinical case scenarios
11.05-11.25		Break
11.25-12.25	Jill Bunker Registered Nurse, Independent Prescriber, Fellow of The British & Irish Hypertension Society	Interpretation of ambulatory blood pressure recordings (group work)
12.25-13.00	Ruth Morrow Advanced Nurse Practitioner (Primary Care)	Setting up a nurse led hypertension service in General Practice
13.00-13.45		Lunch
13.45-15.10	Shirley O'Shea Snr. Health Promotion Officer, HSE South	Motivational interviewing for behaviour change
15.10-15.25		Break
15.25-15.50	Janis Morrissey Head of Health Promotion, Information and Training, Irish Heart Foundation	Key messages for hypertension prevention and lifestyle interventions
15.10-16.00	Catriona Murphy (as above)	Summary, evaluation and close

For further information:

E: catriona.murphy@dcu.ie

Register: <https://dcubihshypertension.eventbrite.ie/>

Fee: €50.00

Nursing and Midwifery Board of Ireland Post-Registration Category 1 approved
(5 Continuing Education Units)